

Rally and Press Conference

Honoring the 35th Anniversary of the “International Year of the Child”

A resolution in honor of the anniversary of the United Nations “International Year of the Child” will be presented to the Cincinnati Board of Education. The resolution affirms the commitment to providing equitable and high quality education for all children using the Community Learning Center model.

WHEN: 6:30PM Monday November 17th, 2014

WHERE: CPS Board of Education 2651 Burnet Avenue 45219

WHO: Students, Parents, Teachers, Elected officials, Supporters of Public Education, and YOU!

Despite the challenges of childhood poverty, our public school students outperform their peers across the state. This success is largely attributed to the positive role of the Community Learning Center education model as a pathway for student success. Come join us as we commit to the expansion and improvement of Community Learning Centers!
